

New and exclusive for Peacock guests only

For the first time we are offering our guests the opportunity to have a tour of Haddon Hall on selected dates when it is closed to the public.

For those of you who have not heard of Haddon Hall it is probably the finest example of a fortified medieval manor house in existence. Present-day Haddon Hall dates from the 12th Century to the early 17th Century, whereupon it lay dormant for over two hundred years from 1700 until the 1920s, when the 9th Duke and Duchess of Rutland restored the house and gardens, and once again made it habitable.

Haddon has also featured in many films including The Princess Bride, Pride and Prejudice, The Other Boleyn Girl and most recently Jane Eyre and guess who stayed with us!!

Book our special “Hall & Hotel” package which is available Monday and Tuesday throughout October until 6th December 2011 and from 1st February until 18th March 2012 at £190.00 per room (based on 2 people sharing) to include a 3 course bar dinner.

Should you not be able to getaway midweek you can add a Saturday tour to your existing booking at £9.50 per person.

Described by Simon Jenkins in 1000 best houses as
“The most perfect house to survive from the middle ages”

Itinerary as follows:

10.15am- You will be picked up from the hotel and taken to Haddon Hall.
After your tour you will enjoy a glass of mulled wine in the Banqueting Hall before being taken back to the hotel around 12.30pm (Timings subject to change for operational reasons)
