

Name	Venue	Biography
Sue Shaper	Baytree Shopping Centre	Sue makes pictures from scraps of fabric, ribbons and other trims. Her inspiration often comes from nature and she gets a lot of satisfaction from creating something new out of recycled materials.
Amanda Westbury	Creatures Great and Small	Amanda Westbury is a studio artist at Gatehouse Arts. Her ceramic artwork series has been inspired by nature, Essex landscapes and the changing seasons. She uses a colour palette of subtle Earthy tones produced by iron, cobalt and copper oxides, and often combines the handcrafted ceramic pieces with glass and found fragments.
Sophie Wing	Jasmine Bleu	Sophie is currently completing a Fine Art degree and has found a love for cyanotypes; a camera less form of photography that becomes a record of time, frozen in shades of blue. She uses abstract objects to create ethereal shapes of light.
Amita Benedetti	Shenfield Wine Company	Amita is a photographer based in Brentwood, specialising in landscape, street and portrait photography. Her exhibits this year portray a summer sunset over Brentwood, and represent the many sunsets in one's life.
Rob Townsend	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Baytree Shopping Centre and • Kings Road Tattoos 	Rob produces art prints in a unique style - drawing on a variety of influences including a variety of pop art icons, The Old Masters and the Beano! To these eclectic influences he adds his own take on things, sometimes not always knowing what the end result will be, but that is all part of the creative adventure.
Edmund Ranasinghe	EyeSyste	Edmund is an amateur photographer whose hobby is photography. His artwork consists of framed photographs of landscapes captured by my digital camera after dark.

Kirsten Yeates	Baytree Shopping Centre	Kirsten is a creative embroiderer and textile artist. The general aim of her work is to explore the links between textile designs, nature, literature and historical events. Inspirations include Miss Willmott's garden at Warley Place, the mix of cultures from China to Northern Europe and Danish art and culture
Jeanne Mann	Baytree Shopping Centre	Jeanne Mann is an artist and musician from Harlow specialising in watercolours of all sorts. She has received several commissions for pet portraits in watercolours and line drawings. Using musical themes as inspiration for her watercolours Jeanne has made studies of musicians and musical instruments and often has images printed in concert programmes.
Charles Bran	Jasmine Bleu	Charles's starting point is nature, the seashore, ancient woodlands, using handmade paper for his prints.
Catherine Woodman	Baytree Shopping Centre	Catherine's work is inspired by collected images and film of her everyday life. She creates her own work by combining painting and printmaking techniques and by exploring and recreating the world around her.
Marion Simkins	Baytree Shopping Centre	For as long as Marion can remember she has always had a pencil or paintbrush to hand. For her a successful artwork is one that evokes an emotional response. It is for this reason that portraiture has become her passion.
Jane Hepburn	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Baytree • Vintage Verde 	Jane's main focus being to get exposure and be part of the positive side of Essex especially the youth.
Mark Blue	Piccola	Mark lives in Brentwood and works part-time at the local library. He works mainly in pastels and has successfully exhibited in galleries in Essex, Kent and Suffolk. He also accepts commissions of horses, pets and portraits.

Michael Hanson	Piccola	Michael is a classically trained Fine Artist that specialises in portraiture and has previously worked as a freelance Illustrator and Graphic Designer. From a young age he has always been very passionate about art.
Julia Austin-Brenes	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Audio T • Liquorice 	Julia is a local artist and musician. In addition to long-term projects on Cuba and Latin American culture she has lately been exploring the world of popular women's magazines with a particular focus on body image, inspiration, ambition and celebrity.
Open Arts	Baytree Shopping Centre	Open Arts is a charitable community arts and mental health project run as one of the charities managed within the Essex Partnership University NHS Foundation Trust, offering creative courses in community venues across Essex. Open Arts promotes mental health and wellbeing for people aged 16+ through participation in the arts. Open Arts recently ran an art course in Brentwood which is part funded by Brentwood Community Fund and Brentwood Mental health and wellbeing fund. Open Arts has exhibited as part of the Brentwood Art trail for many years.
Chris Gillies	Baytree Shopping Centre	Chris is a local artist and member of Brentwood and Ongar Art Societies.
Bee Worsfold	Baytree Shopping Centre	Bee is a textile artist and works with various mediums. Her inspiration comes from nature. Hence most of her work portrays landscapes and seascapes. She enjoys painting, sewing and origami – combining them together to make art quilts.
Doug Flack	Baytree Shopping Centre	Following retirement in 2015 Doug works as a "frustrated astro photographer or as a model builder," from which he produces photo images. Models vary from the world of pure fantasy or look back to his days working in public transport.

Sue Mills	The Hair Company	Sue Mills is Hutton-based artist specialising in a self-taught ink on watery paper technique.
Gary Williams	Brentwood Library	Gary loves all things to do with nature and colour. He is a self-taught artist and has only returned to art, and poetry which he also likes to write, in the last seven months.
Pernilla Iggstrom	Parry Cohen	Pernilla Iggstrom is a Swedish visual artist, based in London. She was born in Korea and grew up in Sweden. Pernilla worked many years in the corporate and entrepreneurial environment both in Europe and Asia before she realised her lifelong dream of being an artist. In 2011 she completed her BA (Hons) in Fine Art Painting from City & Guilds of London Art School.
Janette Lazell	Brentwood Centre	Janette is an artist and designer working with mixed media, metal, textiles, and photography and with an interest in spatial design.
Jim Delaney and Mariya Shukeroua	Chicken and Frog Bookshop	James is a retired specialist decorator (churches, listed and historic buildings). He buys, prepares and paints side tables in a 'retro' style. Bulgarian artist Mariya Shukeroua, an art graduate, designs and applies her art to produce these collectable, one-off pieces of furniture.
Active Arts	Baytree Shopping Centre	Activate Arts is an independent voluntary group set up in 1999 to bring together and offer support to professional artists living in and around Chelmsford.