1. Start at Braintree District Museum
   What was this building before it became the Museum?
   Did you know? During World War II, air raid shelters were built on the playground area opposite, currently the Manor Street Car Park.

2. Town hall
   What does the coat of arms on the building say?
   Did you know? The Town Hall was the gift of William Julien Courtauld at a cost in 1928 of £50,000.

3. The Great Square
   What building has a blue plaque and to whom is it dedicated?
   Did you know? There has been market in Braintree since 1199 (over 800 years).

4. The High Street
   Walk towards Bank Street and look down the High Street. Can you spot any differences with this picture of the High Street in about 1900?
   Now look down Bank Street.
   Did You Know? In 1941, during World War II, the site including Lloyds Bank was hit by a bomb which ruined many buildings and killed three people.

5. George Yard
   Who is the blue plaque in George Yard dedicated to?
   Did you know? Crittall Windows had factories all over the world.
   Did you know? George Yard was the centre of the Roman town of Braintree.

6. Sandpit lane
   What was found when they excavated Sandpit Lane?
   Did you know? The fountain is 80 years old and was a gift to the town in 1938.

7. The Fountain
   How many seahorses can you count around the fountain? What other animals can you spot?
   Did you know? About 500 years ago St Michael’s was also used as a grammar school.

8. St Michael’s Church
   How many doors and round windows on the spire can you count?
   Did you know? The Warner Textile Archive is home to over 100,000 textiles and the print used for this Heritage Hunt is from the collection. You can see it on display on Wednesdays.

9. Braintree Cage
   Find the Braintree Cage. Clue: It looks a bit like a shed. Who used it?
   Did you know? There is a whole gallery dedicated to the father of British Natural History in the Museum. Come in and find out more!

10. The Warner Textile Archive
    Find the entrance. How many points does the Warner Textile Archive roof have?
    Did you know? There is a whole gallery dedicated to the father of British Natural History in the Museum. Come in and find out more!

11. Of who is the statue in the Museum Garden?
    Did you know? The fountain is 80 years old and was a gift to the town in 1938.

To finish the hunt walk back to Braintree District Museum for your final question.