

FIND THE BOAR?

Once again the boars are on the loose. This time they have escaped from their homes in local schools, playgroups and the Taurus Crafts craft units. So look out for Baldrick the Sniffer, Gruntana, Pinkie, Chops, Baez, Gloucester Old Square, Burt the Severn Boar, Sir Gruntalot, Rudolph, Boar Family Scratchings, Bordacea, Colin, Cecil, Boris, Clanger, Lavender and Hubert hiding in the garden and buildings at Taurus Crafts. Find them all and the intrepid hunter will win the inaugural Boar Trophy made by Martin Stephens of the Taurus Crafts Pottery. And then there is Mrs Snuffle Truffle, she is not exactly hiding! The Boar trail is open from April 11th to May 2nd.

NOTES

Taurus Crafts is an arts and craft centre, open 7 days a week from 10.00am on the A48 between Aylburton and Lydney. It hosts 15 small arts and craft businesses, a working Pottery, a Gift Shop, Café and La Bodega – a Local Food Shop and Deli. Taurus Crafts is a social enterprise. It has a strong focus in supporting markets for local artisan produce – arts, crafts and food. Taurus Crafts also works with local care agencies and schools to provide work experience and development to people with learning difficulties whose needs are not well met through mainstream education and training.
