

CAERNARFON

Princes of Gwynedd to the time of Edward I who built Caernarfon's majestic castle.

Wander the old streets of the walled town, a town which

Caernarfon's interesting history spans many centuries - from the ancient Celts, the Romans, has received considerable investment during recent years. Savour its unique atmosphere as well as enjoying the new developments the town has to offer. Visit the town's shops; discover the fascinating artefacts at Segontium Museum or, perhaps, enjoy a journey through scenic Snowdonia on the Welsh Highland Railway.

Caernarfon is a perfect getaway for groups touring Snowdonia and the Llŷn Peninsula. Many attractions are within easy reach, as well as many outdoor activities such as cycling, walking, fishing, golf and sailing.

