

Cinque Ports

DVD ORDER FORM

Eminent historian and television presenter, Dr David Starkey, tells the story of the Cinque Ports from the origins of this unique organisation, nearly 1000 years ago, to the present day. The DVD has been professionally produced by Peter Williams TV and is supplied in an attractive 'library' case with a full-colour, printed sleeve.

This is the full version which runs for approximately 90 minutes. A shorter, edited version has been distributed for use in local schools.

To obtain your copy please complete the order form below, detach and send it, with your remittance, to the following address -
