

Godiva Unsigned to Rock the Kasbah!

Local unsigned bands will be rocking the Kasbah this weekend as the Godiva Unsigned Final gets underway. Doors open at 1pm this Sunday June 6th and the audience must arrive before 1:30pm to be eligible to vote, the gig is free entry and open to those aged 14 and over.

The 8 finalists all vying for a chance to play the Main Stage at Godiva on Saturday the 3rd July are: Young Runaways, Garfield Mayor, Black Fangs, Idle Playthings, Tempting Rosie, OST, Arabella and Man Antique. Fans have already been casting their all important votes through the Godiva Festival Website. Online voting has now closed and will make up 20% of the final votes, the four lucky winners will be revealed live on stage at 7:30pm.

Mick McLaughlin Head of Marketing and Communications for CV One Ltd said:

“We had a fantastic response to the Godiva Unsigned Competition this year and I would like to thank each and every band who entered, the calibre of entries this year was truly outstanding and it goes to show how lucky we are as a region to have such a talented group of local musicians. We are really looking forward to announcing the final 4 winners, live on stage at the Kasbah this Sunday!”

For full profiles on the 8 finalists please log onto the website and follow the links to the unsigned section.
