FOUR GREAT REASONS TO VISIT IN JULY

1. Paint Manchester red, and a host of other colours besides at The Color Run (1 July 2017), the original and largest 5k colour fun run in the world. Runners, or indeed walkers, start the day in a special edition white t-shirt, before getting covered from head to toe in a rainbow of colours at five stations around the city.
2. Set across five of Liverpool's most iconic locations, and jam-packed with a star-studded line up, the British Style Collective (7 – 9 July 2017) is set to take-over the city for the fashion and beauty event of the year. See the trends, shop the catwalk and create your own summer wardrobe from a host of brands.
3. Enjoy four days filled with music, dance and entertainment at Hull Folk and Maritime Festival (20 – 23 July) featuring over 80 free performances at venues around the picturesque marina and historic Old Town as well as a floating maritime and shanty stage, folk dancing, traditional crafts and folk art.
4. Visit Leeds and celebrate the Summer Series at Millennium Square (28 July - 6 August 2017) which starts in style with The Film House on the Square from 27 to 29 July and 'A Classical Summer's Evening' on Saturday 30 July, but will also feature interactive performances, street food and live music.
