

Lazaat - Not Strictly Business

Hull & East Yorkshire (HEY) Conferences are delighted to announce that Lazaat Hotel have joined their conference partnership.

Lazaat is an individual and innovative concept, a unique venue for business meetings, bespoke events, dining and celebrations. The architectural styles and interior design, the food, the meeting rooms and the overall ambience all reflect a combination of eclectic influences from various worldwide cultures. The highest quality raw materials and design features have been used throughout to create an exciting and individual look.

Lazaat offer four fully air conditioned conference rooms, suitable for hosting discreet boardroom meetings or exhibitions and conferences from 2- 300. All conference facilities provide AV equipment and wireless broadband internet access.

The Lazaat team aim to provide a relaxed and stylish environment which is also affordable and unpretentious, but always with an emphasis on offering a totally professional and efficient service.

The name Lazaat originates from a combination of a term used in two Eastern languages, Persian and Urdu, and refers to 'an experience that stimulates the senses' for more information on this venue which differs from the norm contact HEY Conferences.

HEY Conferences work in partnership with hotels, training venues, attractions and conference support businesses throughout the Hull & East Yorkshire area.

In 2008 HEY Conferences brought nearly £3 million of revenue in to Hull & East Yorkshire, and the figures so far for 2009 indicate that they will bring even more business into the region.

The HEY Conferences Team offer conference organisers a full range of free impartial services including, venue finding, site visits, delegate accommodation booking, social programme planning, event marketing and public relations support.
