

HEY! The Spa Bridlington wins New Venue of the Year at the Insider Business Tourism Awards.

HEY Conferences is pleased to announce that The Spa Bridlington has won New Venue of the Year 2009 at a prestigious award ceremony at the Royal Armouries Museum on Thursday 19 March 2009.

Other HEY Conferences Partners to be nominated and short listed finalists were: The Freedom Centre and The World Trade Centre Hull and Humber in the: Unique Venue and Best New Venue categories.

Commenting on the success, Jeremy Hartill, General Manager of The Spa Bridlington said: 'This recognition of the investment in The Spa and the achievement of the staff over this first year is excellent. There was stiff competition from a very worthy shortlist and we look forward to continuing the effort and success for many years to come.'

Approaching its first anniversary mile stone, having reopened after extensive redevelopment, The Spa Bridlington, has hosted a wide range of events including the Yorkshire International Business Week Dinner, Antiques Roadshow, Children in Need and many more.

Cllr Jane Evison of East Riding of Yorkshire Council said: 'I am delighted with this, it is great news and wonderful for Bridlington.'

Janet Reuben, Chief Executive of Visit Hull and East Yorkshire, said: 'Hull and East Yorkshire Conferences are very proud that three of our members have received such fantastic recognition. This award pays tribute to the hard work that has gone in to making The Spa Bridlington such a fantastic venue for events in our area and confirms that Hull & East Yorkshire has a lot to offer in the Business Tourism industry.'
