

Burton Agnes & Kilham

24 miles (38km)
from Driffield

Flat at first along the foot of the more gently sloping side of the Wolds, crossing chalk streams and the Driffield Navigation canal to reach Burton Agnes with its medieval manor house, interesting church and excellent Elizabethan house and gardens (open daily Apr-Oct). Up onto the Wolds again and following Woldgate Roman Road into the former market village of Kilham, then Nafferton's large pond and back to Driffield, the self-proclaimed 'capital of the Wolds'. Driffield and Nafferton are both on the Yorkshire Coast railway line.
