Welcome to Leeds, a nationally recognised hub for food and drink. Whether it's consuming or producing, the people of Leeds love tasty treats and the Leeds Food and Drink Festival is about celebrating the innovation and talent based here!

To mark our tenth anniversary, Leeds Food and Drink Festival is back and bigger than ever as the cornerstone of the first Leeds Food Month. From Friday 22 May until Sunday 7 June we invite you to join us on a journey of discovery and taste Leeds at its best.

There are countless events taking place across the city including cooking and cocktail masterclasses, special menus, and tasting evenings, all culminating in the Yorkshire Post Food and Drink Show in Millennium Square (5-7 June). So what are you waiting for? Pick the events that tickle your taste buds below and join us for a culinary celebration like no other.

MOUTH WATERING MARKETS AND SCRUMPTIOUS SHOWS

World Feast Briggate, 24 May
A tasty event inspired by street food from around the world.

Kirkstall Deli Market Kirkstall Abbey, 30-31 May
A fantastic market with over 40 stalls and if you don't want to shop you can relax in the beautiful surroundings of one of Britain's most complete Cistercian abbeys.

Handmade in Yorkshire Victoria Gardens, 5-7 June
Some of the finest chefs from around the region will be hosting exciting cookery demonstrations alongside market stalls and live entertainment.

Leeds Loves Cocktails Various locations, 1-7 June
38 cocktail bars in the city are collaborating to promote the best mixed drinks over a week of events, tastings and special sessions.

MENU MAKING MASTER CLASSES
