1. What you can see and do from Beachy Head and along Eastbourne

Promenades to Sovereign Harbour

Beachy Head and South Downs National Park

Wheelchair accessible toilet and blue badge spaces in main car park.

Beachy Head Countryside Centre, BN20 7YA. 01323 737273. With exhibition of history and ecology of Eastbourne, free, art gallery, shop, all accessible.

Beachy Head pub and restaurant fully accessible. Disabled toilet available.

The Peace Path provides a firm circular clifftop route with a view of the lighthouse. Wheelchair accessible but in some parts, cambers can be awkward because the path follows the downland contours.

The Promenade

Dotto Train. Runs during the summer season (Weekends from 25 May to 23 June 2019 and every day from 29 June to 1 September 2019. Dotto also runs on Bank Holiday Monday 27 May 2019. It will not run over the Airbourne Event 15 to 18 August). The Dotto Train will take you from the Holywell to Harbour Reach. Part of the route is on the road, the rest along the Promenade, walkers beware. Run by Stagecoach, wheelchair accessible. Timetable from Seafront Office 01323 410611. <https://www.stagecoachbus.com/dotto>

Wheelchair Accessible Toilets & Changing Places. There are wheelchair accessible toilets opened with a Radar key (National Key Scheme) at Holywell (Lower Promenade), Bandstand (Upper and lower Promenade), Pier (Lower Promenade), Redoubt Bowling Pavilion, Fisherman's Green and Langney Point. Changing Places on Middle Prom at The Bandstand. Residents can apply for their own key, membership form on Council website or visit The Seafront Office on Lower Prom.

Helen Gardens Children's play area, bowls, putting course, petanque, cafe and toilets. Lots of seating, sheltered by hedges. Access from main road King Edwards Parade. Mainly level pathways and grass areas. Great views of the Downs and sea. Street parking.

Italian Gardens is a secret hideaway at Holywell below Helen Gardens. Access from the main road is via a steep slope or less steep from the promenade (not good for manual wheelchairs or some powerchairs). These unusual and secluded lawned gardens sit in a wooded amphitheatre carved out of the cliff face just yards from Holywell beach. They have open air theatre performances here. The main garden area is level.

Holywell area has three promenades levels. The main pathway runs along the King Edwards Parade, the middle promenade is mainly gravel, then there is the Lower Level Promenade along beach edge. There is access to the different promenades via steps/slopes at different points, not all are accessible for wheelchairs.

Ramps for wheelchairs / buggies that lead to the Lower Promenade are found near the Wish Tower, Bandstand and Pier. You can travel on this level to the Holywell end (Beachy Head) where there is a cafe and public accessible toilet. In the other direction you can travel all the way to Sovereign Harbour.

Wish Tower Slopes / Western Lawns has a small car park with blue badge spaces.

The RNLI Museum, King Edwards Parade, BN21 4BY. 01323 730717. The lifeboat museum traces the history of these sturdy, versatile and increasingly high-tech vessels and their crews. Memorabilia. Lifeboat models. Fully accessible. Refreshment kiosk.

Bristo Perre restaurant opening to be confirmed in 2019 by Martello Tower, known locally as Wish Tower.

The Western Lawns are used for special events during the year eg 999 display, Airborne. Grassed area with many seats, ideal for picnics.

Lifeguard Beach Station and first aid post. 01323 412290. Lifeguards are on duty from 1 May to 30 September. Offer Kidzone colour coded wristband system.

Beach huts can be hired yearly, monthly, weekly, daily. Those which are available for casual hire are fully accessible with decking, and are located next to the Lifeguard's station. Contact Seafront Office on 01323 410611.

Deckchairs can be hired from the Pier to Wish Tower during the season.

Three Wooden pathways across the beach for wheelchairs and buggies. The Jan Gould Way is by the lifeguard station, there is a sand pit and small area where you can sit. The other two are either side of the bandstand. These offer a chance for wheelchair users to access the beach to high tide level.

Cafes and Refreshment kiosks, there are three cafes along on the Lower Promenade between the Lifeguard Station and Pier offering limited indoor and lots of outside seating on decking over the beach. Refreshment kiosks are located along the middle and lower proms. Many of the hotels along the seafront are open to non-residents some have wheelchair access as do some restaurants. (see our separate list of ideas where to eat).

The Bandstand Grand Parade, BN21 3AD. 01323 410611. Offers a varied programme of concerts through the summer months for all ages. Accessible. Accessible toilets on Lower and Middle proms. Changing Places toilet facility on Middle prom. Residents can apply for their own key, membership form on Council website or visit The Seafront Office on Lower Prom. Some blue badge spaces along King Edwards Parade (beach side).

Carpet Gardens are the centre piece of Eastbourne Promenade between the Pier and Bandstand. Famous seasonal floral display. Get your camera ready!
