

Sunday 8 July

11am – 1pm

Drop in and discover more about
Archive Explorers: Riding the Waves of Discovery!
and North Yorkshire County Records Office

11am – 1pm

We're going on a Plant Hunt!
Drop-in art workshop with artist Fiona MacDonald (for all the family)

11am – 1pm

Drop in and explore The Oceanic Reading Room
with Ahilapalapa Rands (refreshments provided)

1.30pm – 2.30pm

Cooking up a Storm: Finding James Cook, a Journey Through Time
A personal voyage of discovery presented by students from Caedmon Community College, Eskdale School and Whitby Fishing School *

All events FREE unless otherwise stated.

* Places limited so booking essential.
Tickets available from Whitby Library 01609 534350.

Encounters is curated by Invisible Dust in partnership with North Yorkshire Library and Information Service.

 www.invisibledust.com

 /Invisibledust

 /Invisible_Dust

 @Invisible_Dust

#encounters250

#cook250whitby

Encounters. COOK 250

FIONA MACDONALD : FERAL PRACTICE & AHILAPALAPA RANDS

EXHIBITION 7 JULY – 24 AUGUST
WHITBY LIBRARY WINDSOR TERRACE, WHITBY YO11 1ET

Weekend events 7 & 8 July
Info: www.invisibledust.com
#encounters250 #cook250whitby

Cook 250 Whitby Weekend Programme at Whitby Library

For this special weekend, Whitby Library will be open on Saturday 7 July from 10am to 5pm and on Sunday 8 July from 10am to 4pm. For more info visit Whitby Library or [www.invisible dust.com](http://www.invisible dust.com)

COOK 250

Encounters:

exploring the scientific and artistic impact of James Cook's first Pacific voyage and the shared histories of encounter between Cook and the Peoples of the Pacific.

An exhibition of two new artworks for Whitby Library. Plant Hunting by Fiona MacDonald: Feral Practice and The Oceanic Reading Room by Ahilapalapa Rands (exhibition continues until 24 August)

Archive Explorers: Riding the Waves of Discovery!

Archive material from North Yorkshire County Records Office, curated by volunteers from Whitby and Great Ayton Libraries

Cooking up a Storm: Finding James Cook, a Journey Through Time

A display by students from Caedmon College, Eskdale School and Whitby Fishing School

Saturday 7 July

10am – 12pm

Drop in and explore The Oceanic Reading Room with Ahilapalapa Rands (refreshments provided)

10am – 12pm

Many Hands Drop-in art workshop with Invisible Dust (for all the family)

10am – 12pm & 1 – 3pm

Drop in and discover more about Archive Explorers: Riding the Waves of Discovery! and North Yorkshire County Records Office

11am – 11.45am

Meet the Author: Natasha Pulley

A talk by award-winning, international bestselling author, sharing her thoughts about explorations past... and future *

1pm – 1.45pm

Meet the Artist: Ahilapalapa Rands

A talk by the New Zealand artist about The Oceanic Reading Room, shared histories and different viewpoints *

2.30pm – 3.15pm

Meet the Artist: Fiona MacDonald: Feral Practice

A talk about Plant Hunting and what Whitby has taught her about the natural world *

---

5pm – 6pm

James Cook: The Voyages at the British Library with Dr William Frame

Described as 'a remarkable exhibition' (Sir David Attenborough) and an 'eye-opening record of colliding worlds' (The Guardian), join Dr William Frame, Curator of the British Library's major exhibition on James Cook, for a behind-the-scenes look at some of the remarkable objects in the collection. TICKETS £3 *

---

All events FREE unless otherwise stated.

* Places limited so booking essential.

Tickets available from Whitby Library 01609 534350.