Beverley Town Trail
Medieval Guilds & Crafts

Take a Step Back in Time

Discover what life was like in Medieval Beverley

South from the North Bar towards the Beverley Beck and along the town's heritage

Medieval Beverley was a wealthy town with a diverse population of skilled workers, including carpenters, blacksmiths, paper makers, musicians and armours. To name just a few.

In this trail the Beverley town trail displays 39 medieval guilds, and trades and the sculptures are positioned close to their original locations. Split the trail up into the different walks or spend a whole day completing it all one go.

Whether you want to find out where bakers were put in the baking oven with a good fire, or simply want to admire the oldest and most beautiful buildings, you will find an entire learning on the Beverley town trail.

Over 700 local school children were involved with the craft activities and show for the development of the sculptures and words of art, have you spotted any sculptures yet?
