Guided Tours & Visitors 2019

Hull Minster

Hull Minster, is a place where people come to worship, explore, enjoy, belong and to seek moments of peaceful reflection, or to revel in its historic grandeur.

Dating back to the late 13th Century when Edward I granted the former settlement of Wyke a Royal Charter and re-named it Kings Town upon Hull, the church is as old as the city itself.

Marvel at the huge structure, half medieval brick, half stone, standing more than 700 years after Edward's finest masons began the enormous task of erecting one of the greatest churches of its time.

Remarkable history is everywhere here. At Hull Minster you can see the font where Wilberforce was baptised and view a written record of that event. You can see memorials to Hull's fallen in two World Wars, and a book recording the local soldiers lost in the Great War. There are memorials to the many Hull lives lost at sea, including plaques commemorating the Triple Trawler Tragedy of 1968, which claimed 58 crewmen within three weeks. Look up and the ceilings will astound you as medieval angels play instruments from high above.

But Hull Minster offers so much more than wonderful history and plays a key part in the cultural and community life of the great city of Hull. Standing in Trinity Square, listen to the music of the carillon, a remote-controlled bell system, chiming throughout the day.

For specialist groups we can arrange photography and history tours, a view from the roof and we have a range of midweek services and groups.

We invite you to visit us. We promise you an amazing experience and a wonderful welcome in a truly amazing place.
