

MORE PUBS THAN YOU CAN SHAKE A STICK AT

Hull is a city full of surprises and hidden corners, a place which changes with the light, the tide and the seasons; a modern city where the echoes of the past can still be heard.

Explore the cobbled streets and ancient alleyways of the historic Old Town, Trinity, where real ale pubs are the main attraction. Includes amongst other

Ye Old Black Boy

Hull's Oldest Pub, dating from 1337, The black boy has been licenced since 1729 and specialising in Cask Ales

Sailmaker's Arms -

Formerly E Sharpe Sailmakers. Set just off High Street in a secluded courtyard

Look out for our Pub of the month feature starting in October to find our more

Trinity Market - foodie haven with a host of street food goodness to tickle your taste buds. Situated in the peaceful surroundings of Trinity Square, the market is perfectly placed for picking up lunch on the go and enjoying the impressive sights of Hull Minster and its ambient mirror pools.

Humber Street home to high quality restaurant alongside modern street food and more pubs, breweries and distilleries than you can shake a stick at.

Highlights include

Ambiente

Serving gourmet tapas in a vibrant, yet relaxed restaurant is what Ambiente is all about. Inspired by tapas served in traditional Spanish 'tabancos' and influenced by tastes and flavours from around the world. In true Spanish style, the drinks list contains so much sherry that we guarantee you'll be back for more.

Festivals are our thing

Craft beer bars approximately 15 cask beers, Live music Thursday and Friday evenings

Hot and Cold food available from snacks to street food. Non-alcoholic drinks available, Children welcome until 6pm

Yum Food Festival August

Two days of tasty street food, fresh local produce, and delicious beverages. Come and see what's on the menu at Hull city centre's celebration of food and drink – from traditional dishes to worldwide culinary creations.

With over 70 stalls of delicious hot and cold food, a variety of alcoholic and soft drinks, as well as free children's entertainment ranging from face painting to cupcake decorating and healthy cookery classes. Whether you want something to eat or drink 'on the go', to sit and savour your food in our picnic area, or to stock up on an array of exciting ingredients to make your own dishes at home, Yum! is the place to be.

Street Food Nights

1st Thursdays of the month from May to September

With 30 local high-quality food vendors (think Shoot The Bull, Kerb Edge etc) as well as the bars throughout the Old Town, serving hot food, alcoholic and soft drinks. We will set it up a bit like a piazza, and have deckchairs, bistro tables and chairs, picnic benches, and decorate the area with string lights

In addition, we will have entertainment throughout the night, ranging from a DJ and live music through to circus skill acts etc, which we hope will give it quite a bohemian and Mediterranean feel.
